

Critical Acclaim

“Musicians and venues combine to produce the perfect tribute to the 17th and 18th centuries.”

— AAA Westways, 2019

“Because Blumenstock has been playing and performing within the Baroque music world for 35 years, she is able to draw on an impressive roster of top musician friends to come to Corona del Mar.”

— Newport Beach Independent, 2019

“A delightful opening day of Bach, Handel and others shows why the annual Corona del Mar series has become a key cultural event for Orange County.”

— Los Angeles Times

“Long live the Baroque Music Festival, Corona del Mar!”

— Orange County Register

Sunday, January 23, 2022
St. Mark Presbyterian Church
Winter Musicale

Our annual fundraising concert returns, featuring violinist Elizabeth Blumenstock and friends in an uplifting recital of music by Purcell and others. Followed by a catered dinner

Sunday, June 19, 2022
St. Mark Presbyterian Church
Many Happy Returns!

For our return to a live Festival we open with Bach's Concerto for Two Harpsichords, BWV1061 (soloists Matthew Dirst and Ian Pritchard), a violin concerto, and more

Monday, June 20, 2022
St. Michael & All Angels Episcopal Church
Matthew Dirst Harpsichord & Organ Recital
 Following the success of his Bach concert film in summer 2021, Matthew Dirst makes his in-person debut for the Festival with a full solo recital

Wednesday, June 22, 2022
Sherman Library & Gardens
Concertos in the Gardens

New! Our "Friday" Gardens soloists will appear midweek in 2022. A rare opportunity to hear an entire evening of concertos, including a Telemann triple concerto

Friday, June 24, 2022
St. Michael & All Angels Episcopal Church
Baroque Suites: The Art of the Dance

The dance suite is the beating heart of Baroque music. Elizabeth Blumenstock and friends explore this art form in all its variety and richness

Sunday, June 26, 2022
St. Mark Presbyterian Church
Festival Finale: A Handel Gala

We close out the Festival's return in celebratory fashion with virtuosic Handel arias for soprano and countertenor, plus overtures and a concerto grosso

Concerts in June are preceded by brass music performed al fresco and followed by a wine & waters reception. Program and artists subject to change.

Ticket sales cover significantly less than half the cost of our concerts. We rely on the generosity of our supporters to maintain the high quality of the Festival's performances. All contributions are tax-deductible.

Yes! I'd love to help underwrite the Baroque Music Festival's homecoming 42nd season
